Solace

Within the Ruins

The luster is now gone (now gone) I know where I belong A vagabond by nature A life only I can endure

I find solace, I find peace I find peace in the unforeseen And now my satisfaction is achieved

Welcome filth, accept uncertainty Comfort in knowing I am not alone Passion is shared, hardships endured Learn from this, and fucking grow

Grow

Live, eat, breathe, bleed Striving to reach the peak Sweat, grind, break, bleed Satisfaction achieved Live, eat, breathe, bleed Striving to reach the peak Sweat, grind, break, bleed Satisfaction achieved

I find solace, I find peace I find peace in the unforeseen And now my satisfaction is achieved

This is a statement to always try This is a statement to never die Now I boldly say I can never die

Live, eat, breathe, bleed Striving to reach the peak Sweat, grind, break, bleed Striving to reach the peak Striving to reach the peak

Fuck the impending The condescending This is what I live by A testament to always try Defy, defy, defy (defy)

I can never die Never die Always strive Never deny I was built To survive
