End Of All

Wizard

Odin knew the truth
But led them all to doom
Einheriers and gods
Trust in his words

Follow me to victory
Let us slay them all!
In his eye one lonely tear
Shows his mortal fear

The gods are dying, the world is crying In this final war
The gods are dying, the world is crying
This is the end
The end of it all

With a smile on their face They march into the blaze Together for their holy land They ride out to defend

Thousand wounds are bleeding
The gods are going to die
Facing their eternity
Under the northern skies
