

Different

Wizo

Their whole life's planned the aim is clear
Birth, school, work, a car, a house, a wife, a dog
The way they go is gone before
From lots of thousand idiots, that think the way they do

But I don't wanna be, what they wanna be
I just wanna be

I wanna be different
I wanna be not the same they are
I don't wanna be not the same they are

I'm walking down the streets and see them
I see their cars, their houses, their wives and their dogs
I'm getting shivers down backbones
I swear, I spend my whole life being not like them
