

Stand Up

Woe, Is Me

This is the beginning - of a new lease on life
This freedom, - this passion is how we survive
Only got one life - one chance
To show what I got - and nothing will ever
Take this from me
You can never take this from me

Whatever happened to just - wanting to live your dream,
When no one cared about - the cover of a magazine
This is the price I pay - for the life I've made,
But I'm always finding a way to - Stand up,
Can't you hear the - sound of - a thousand screaming voices,
Eager to watch you succeed - Give them something real to believe

You'll try everything - to sell your soul for a quick buck,
So look at it this way
Tried to control my life - but I've got something to say
Your words, they make me sick,
Mind-blown by all the constant bullshit
Go back to your pathetic life - and let me be

Whatever happened to - just wanting to live your dream,
When no one cared about - the cover of a magazine
This is the price I pay - for the life I've made,
But I'm always finding a way to - Stand up,
Can't you hear the - sound of - a thousand screaming voices,
Eager to watch you succeed
Give them something - real to believe

This is a song for the times I've failed
This is a song for the times I got it right
Maybe I'm just a boy - with a dream,
But my dreams are becoming a reality
This is a song for the times you've failed
This is a song for the times you got it right
Maybe you're just someone with a dream,
But your dreams are so close you just have to believe it

Stand up, can't you hear the sound, - of a thousand screaming voices

Whatever happened to - just wanting to live your dream,
When no one cared about - the cover of a magazine
This is the price I pay - for the life I've made,
But I'm always finding a way to - Stand up,
Can't you hear the - sound of - a thousand screaming voices,
Eager to watch you succeed
Give them something - real to believe
