

Heavenly Creatures

Wolf Alice

We left dead pictures in our passports
Your hair is cold and I am shy This is not a lot to ask for Just a prayer to pray that this would be the time

Time to die, time to kill
Time will fly, time will heal
All for love, all for you Gods a judge. Love is true
Time to die, time to kill
time will fly, time will heal
All for love, all for you
Gods a judge. Love is true

Was it ever enough that we should simply want to be together?
Was it ever enough that we should simply want to be together, together together, together?

There will be nothing left to be afraid of Cause everything else means nothing at all There's a crown of thorns above your halo I'll be your shadow, don't fear a fall

Its time to die, time to kill
time will fly, time will heal
all for love, all for you
Gods a judge. Love is true
Its time to die, time to kill
time will fly, time will heal
all for love, all for you
Gods a judge. Love is true

Was it ever enough that we should simply want to be together?
Was it ever enough that we should simply want to be together, t ogether, together, together?
