Your Loves Whore

Don't you want to take time and get to love me We could build a perfect world I got tricks I really want to show you I could be your perfect girl, all right

And when we grow older We'll still be friends We'll could still be lovers And we won't fear the end

Life we'll figure and the light won't fade, believe me And it all looks better in the place we made believe Hearts keep pumping and there's one thing That keeps me breathing Is the mentor I've seen and face I'll always see

And when we grow older We'll still be friends We'll still be lovers And we won't fear the end

And when we grow older (Oooh) We'll still be friends (Oooh) We'll could still be lovers (Oooh) And we won't fear the end (Oooh)

I let your love take me Now I am your love's whore Keep me hardly breathing But, I can only love you more I can only love you more

Ah, ah, ah, ah
