

Breaks In Paris

Wolf Gang

Think better
Think twice
Follow your heart
Come out tonight

And if I'm stupid
Well then you know, I was wrong to let you go

Peering through the glass I see what it could have been in two years time
What's a little distance in between
But then she said breaks in Paris weren't the reason why
Weren't the reason why

Think better
Think twice
I know you love me
Somewhere inside

And if you didn't, then would you cry
Lonely is the night

Peering through the glass I see what it could have been in two
years time
What's a little distance in between
But then she said breaks in Paris weren't the reason why
Weren't the reason why

Peering through the glass I see what it could have been in two
years time
What's a little distance in between
But then she said breaks in Paris weren't the reason why

Breaks in Paris
Breaks in Paris
