

Lay Your Love Down

Wolf Gang

There was change in blacks of your eyes
From the gold to the greys of our skies
I beat myself up with these thoughts
These regrets, these question marks

If I stayed would we fall? Would we rise?
So lay your love down, lay your love down for me
Lay it all down, lay it all for me now
Lay your love down, lay your love down for me
Oh give it all
Oh give me it all

Oh woah
They were changed in the blink of an eye
Saw the sun be replaced by the night
I learned your value and I picked across [?]
Gonna win back the things I lost

If I stayed would we fall? Would we rise?
So lay your love down, lay your love down for me
Lay it all down, lay it all for me now
Lay your love down, lay your love down for me
Oh give it all
Oh give me it all

Oh woah
From the night I missed it's space
To the light of your embrace
From the night I missed it's space
With the light

If I stayed would we fall? Would we rise?
So lay your love down, lay your love down for me
Lay it all down, lay it all for me now
Lay your love down, lay your love down for me
Oh give it all
Oh give me it all

Lay your love down for me
Lay your love down, lay your love down for me
Lay your love down, lay your love down for me
So lay your love down for me
