

Killing Armies

Wolf Parade

I got a party started up I let my hair down I heard she's ready to start to leave I heard you're coming home

I won't believe what they say I'm not too good for you I'm goin g to leave for just today I've nothing else to do

You've got your hair down I heard that you can kill things You' ve got your hair down I heard that you can kill things You've g ot your hair down I heard that you can kill things You've got y our hair down...

I heard you're killing armies now...

So Don't let your head get too big Don't let your party go I'm really not going to bed today. I've nothing else to do But no o ne said I can't put up a fight That's why she's breathing like I'm holding a light Well I never asked for something from you I got the party 'PARTY!' papers and the candles are ready to lig ht But no one said I can't put up a fight That's why she's brea thing like I'm holding a light Well I never wanted any but answe rs You know you've owed me for a thousand nights

You're holding out, when holding out When holding out, when hol ding out

I got a party started up I let my hair down I heard she's ready to start to leave I heard you're coming home

So come home... You've got your hair down I heard that you can kill things You've got your hair down I heard that you can kill things You've got your hair down I heard that you can kill thi ngs You've got your hair down...
