

Wits or a Dagger

Wolf Parade

I didn't mean it till
His eyes caught my tenderloin
I see him looking to my knees-
La la la

I see him getting a rise
I see him shaking his horns
I see him bathing in silence-
La la la

Gone crazy in a maze
Oh, done the signs, and
Trade the days and
I've gone crazy in a maze
Bling-bling bling, and
Blood red tings

Should have had to pull that string
Oh, I know now I should have had everything
Oh, I know now I should've had my wits or a dagger
To cut me off

These horns are not for honking

I feel the minutes slide beside me in the room
I see him looking to my knees- la la la
I see him getting his thighs
I see him shaking his horns
I see him getting excited-
La la la

Gone crazy in a maze
Oh, done the signs, and
Trade the days and
I've gone crazy in a maze
Bling-bling bling, and
Blood red tings
Gone crazy in a maze
Oh, done the signs, and
Trade the days and
You are going crazy in a maze
Bling-bling bling, and
Blood red tings

I know, I know, I know
Oh no, oh no, oh no
La la la la la la la la la la la la la
