

Dark Dance

Wolfheart

Dark Dance

It's raining, an old moonchild has gone
The throne was made for the dark whisper
Wild soul lives with no hope
Final night is the dream of the end

No... I shall loose

Darkness flows over my heart...
This night... the shadows
The gate is closed... I'm black
Thunderborn... at the dawn of eternity
I will die by the light of the day
Will the moon shine for the last night
The light no more...
No... I will fall - no... to the ground

No... I will fall - no... to the ground
