

Baroness

Wolfmother

He lives with peasantry
She lives with a higher class
She sleeps in a mansion
Whilst he's sleeping on the grass

Coming out of the darkness with the love for the baroness

Tonight, tonight, tonight gonna leave it all behind
Tonight, tonight could You be my valentine
Tonight, tonight

Where the stars are meant to shine tonight

Nobody ever sees her
She lives behind closed doors
He has no authority
He's one they all ignore

Coming out of the darkness with the love of the baroness

Tonight, tonight, tonight gonna leave it all behind
Tonight, tonight could You be my valentine
Tonight, tonight

Where the stars are meant to shine tonight

Don't listen to no one
They never gonna let You out
Don't listen to no one
They're never gonna work it out, work it out

Tonight, tonight, tonight gonna leave it all behind
Tonight, tonight could You be my valentine
Tonight, tonight
