

Pretty Peggy

Wolfmother

I will stand here in the pouring rain just to see Your face again
Pretty Peggy I used to know, where have You gone, where did You go?

Take my hand, give me a chance, can I have You just for one dance?
The say I am but a foolish man, can I be Your fool and take Your hand?

We will stand tall
We will never fall
Pretty Peggy, we could have it all

Roses are red, violets are blue, I will take them all and give them to You?
I will stand here in the pouring rain just to see Your face again

Take my hand, give me a chance, can I have You just for one more dance?
The say I am but a foolish man, can I be Your fool and take Your hand?

We will stand tall
We will never fall
Pretty Peggy, we could have it all

Can I take You there?

Pretty Peggy was her name, where have You gone, do You feel the same?
