

Smashed and Blind

Wolfsbane

I've been derelict, I've been down,
Dragged my bottom lip all over town,
She left me, whore,
One of these days I won't love her anymore,
She's got a new man now,
And good luck to him,
Cos there's a world of hurt,
That he will be swimming in.

I choose to drink alone,
And I ain't crying in my beer,
Every glass is full of hate,
And who says hate is full of fear?.

Love love love,
Smashed and blind,
Love love love love love,
Love love love,
Time after time,
In this sick world it ain't easy to believe in,
Or to find.

Love means nothing anyway,
You don't need love to live,
She ripped your guts out,
Then she said she [unintelligible].

I choose to drink alone,
And I ain't crying in my beer,
Every glass is full of hate,
And who says hate is full of fear?.
Love love love,
Smashed and blind,
Love love love love love,
Love love love,
Time after time,
In this sick world it ain't easy to believe in,
Or to find but it's not on my mind.

Your girl wants to won you, because you met her mother,
Her mother's an ugly psycho bitch and your girl says,
I don't want to end up like that,
But she's well on her way,
Like a cruel reflection in a mirror that she can't escape,
It surrounds her cos it's in her,
The image is there all the time,
And turns her into it,
She becomes the reflection and she's lost when you turn out the light,
How can you break the mirror?,
Smash it into a million pieces,
Grind it into dust, there has to be a way,
There's got to be a way,
To break the circle, stop the play,
And send the actors home,
To write lines of their own.

I've been derelict, I've been down,

Dragged my bottom lip all over town,
She left me, whore,
One of these days I won't love her anymore.

I choose to drink alone,
And I ain't crying in my beer,
Every glass is full of hate,
And who says hate is full of fear?.

Love love love,
Smashed and blind,
Love love love love love,
Love love love,
Time after time,
In this sick world it ain't easy to believe in,
Or to find.
