Now I fall

Wolfsheim

Sometimes I can't fall asleep You lie beside me and I weep Dancing shadows on the wall Once you caught me ... Now I fall

Sometimes I feel love and trust Turn to anger and disgust Crawling darkness in between No light in reach ... No silver sheen

Sometimes I feel so ashamed To be mercilessly framed Idle hands and eyes that stare But no escape that I would dare

... love and trust ...

Pain increasing every day No truth left I won't betray One day our way leads to an end Why d I care ... I understand

That it's too late for me to go I should have left you years ago Beyond this point of no return Hatred's flame will ever burn

... every day ...
