

Downfall

Wolverine

I saw you die
when you reached out to touch dreams transparent
yet
you were always one step behind
life
exhausted?
will
extinct
the spark
your inner flame
faded away
and the sound of rattling leaves of grass
motioned by the wind
gently subsided
and although you were descending you did not know it
this was a life lost
this was your downfall