

Cellophane

Wondermints

Once upon a time
Sunshine kept you wide awake
Now that you're blind
Hindsight, technicolor fade
Roll over, is it over, why?
Every shoulder- every shoulder you cry
Safe cellophane, hide your face
You're blue and you're colder
Wait for tonight of pain
Tell me when it's over
Roped and tied
I'll find something kind to say
Well, hello, goodbye
It's time to walk away
Roll over, is it over, why?
Every shoulder- every shoulder you cry
Safe cellophane, hide your face
You're blue and you're colder
Wait for tonight of pain
Tell me when it's over
Safe cellophane, hide your face
You're blue and you're colder
Wait for tonight of pain
Tell me when it's over
Roll over, is it over, why?
Every shoulder- every shoulder you cry
Safe cellophane, hide your face
You're blue and you're colder
Wait for tonight of pain
Tell me when it's over...
