

So You Are A Star

Wondermints

So you are a star-okay
Nobody knows you like I do
And you will go far-okay
Nobody knows you like I do
You've got to love only me
You've got to feel only me
'Cause nobody knows you
Nobody shows you the way
Like I do
So you are a star, they say
Nobody knows you like I do
And you play the part-okay
Nobody knows you like I do
You've got to love only me
You've got to feel only me
'Cause nobody knows you
Nobody shows you the way
Like I do
I close my eyes
Thinking about my tomorrow
And then I cry
'Cause no one here can shed a tear for me, oh yeah
So you are a star-okay
Nobody knows you like I do
And you know you are, oh yeah
Nobody knows you like I do
You've got to love only me
You've got to feel only me
'cause nobody knows you,
Nobody shows you the way, the way
Nobody knows you this way
