

Kingdom Come

World Party

Now here comes the world,
Here comes the moon and the sun.
From the top of the pyramid
You can see everyone.
Overe here is the desert,
Over there is the frozen north.
In Sweden they are blonde.
In Africa they're black,
For what it's worth.
The eagle's getting tired,
The bear cannot flap his wings,
People are running scared
As the little girl sings
What goes up,
Surely must ome down.
Don't keep your head in the ground.
Let the kingdom come.
And there's always more ...

Forever, Forever, wandering around my cave.
Forever, Forever, walking past my window.
Forever, Forever, wandering around my cave.
Forever, Forever, walking past my window.
Forever, Forever, wandering around my cave.

Finding the girl,
Follow her down to the stream.
Well you're scanning the walls,
Seaching for stills from your dreams.
You know the pandas are skating
On very thin ice.
If you understand me tap once, babe.
If you don't, just tap twice.
Please let the Kingdom Come.
Let the Kingdom Come.
And there's always more ...

Forever, Forever, wandering around my cave.
Forever, Forever, walking past my window.
Forever, Forever, wandering around my cave.
Forever, Forever, walking past my window.
Forever, Forever, wandering around my cave.

Yeah, the money is so different,
These computers are cute.
You better phone home right now,
See if they can find your lost parachute.
Well the best lack all conviction,
While the worst is yet to come.
You got to pick the politician up,
Kick his bum.
Roll over Beethoven. Let the Kingdom Come.
Let the Kingdom Come.

Don't it just flow through you.
Don't it just flow through everynoe.
