World Party

I don't know why, I don't know when I don't know how, I don't know who I don't know where, I don't know what I don't know which, I don't know why Thought we could work it out But I might have been sleeping I used to give a uhh But now I don't care I'll plug you into heaven Turn up the level I'll pull you in and out Watch the fuses blow 'Cause you just don't know I don't know why, I don't know when I don't know how, I don't know who I don't know where, I don't know what I don't know which, I don't know why I don't know when But all I see is chaos and misunderstanding Why don't you turn it off Leave the world alone 'Cause you just don't know I don't know why, I don't know when I don't know how, I don't know who I don't know where, I don't know what I don't know which, I don't know why I don't know when I don't know how, I don't know who I don't know where, I don't know what I don't know which, I don't know why I don't know when I don't know who, I don't know where I don't know what, I don't know which

I don't know why, I don't know when
