

Don't Change

Worlds Apart

Don't change
Don't change the way you feel
Don't change
I'll be lost without
I'll be lost without
I'll be lost without you now
I'll be there for you
To love and hold you
I'll be there through the thick and the thin
And I
I'll always want you
All part of you
So promise me that you won't change
So don't change
Don't change the way you feel
Don't change
I'll be lost without
I'll be lost without
I'll be lost without you now
Don't change the way you feel
Don't change
I'll be lost without
I'll be lost without
I'll be lost without you now
I'll be lost without you now
I've something to say
So don't turn your head away
The truth is often hard to hear
And I
I've said some bad things
I've hurt your feelings
I've seen the error of my ways
Don't change
Don't change
Don't change
Don't change
Don't change
Don't change the way you feel
Don't change
I'll be lost without
I'll be lost without
I'll be lost without you now
