

In Between

Wouter Hamel

Don't wanna be your everything, I wanna be your in between (4 x

Don't wanna be your everything, I wanna be your in between,
Give me a sign, I'm hanging on.
Give me a sign and I'll be gone.
No one will see us when we turn off all the lights.
We're gonna take down, all the stars out here tonight.

Don't wanna be your everything, don't wanna be your new routine
Take me to places I've seen, take me to places in between.
No one will see us when we turn off all the lights.
We're gonna take down all that's real and all that's right.

You're crazy, and I like it.
You don't care how happy I am.
But I wouldn't worry about that,
'cause I know if you'd call me I'll be there.

Don't wanna be your everything, I wanna be your in between,
Pick up those dices and let them roll, pick up the pieces of my soul.
All that I hope for, all the things you couldn't be,
I'm gonna walk out with the me you couldn't see.

Don't wanna be your everything, I wanna be your in between
Don't wanna be your everything, I wanna be your in between
Don't wanna be your everything, I wanna be your in between
Don't wanna be your everything, I wanna be your in between
I wanna be your in between.

You're crazy, and I like it.
You don't care how happy I am.
But I wouldn't worry about that,
'cause I know if you'd call me I'll be there.

Don't wanna be your everything, I wanna be your in between,
Give me a sign, I'm hanging on.
Give me a sign and I'll be gone.
No one will see us when we turn off all the lights.
We're gonna take down, all the stars out here tonight.

Don't wanna be your everything, I wanna be your in between
Don't wanna be your everything, I wanna be your in between
Don't wanna be your everything, I wanna be your in between
Don't wanna be your everything, I wanna be your in between
