

Angel

:Wumpscut:

Angel, come to me
To me, come to me

Angel, belong to me
To me, belong to me

Angel, you have wings
To fly, fly to me

Angel, do you doubt?
No need to have doubt

Angel, feel my love
My love for you
Feel my love for you

Angel, carry me
To you, to your home, to paradise

Angel, I would lie for you
For you, just for you, with my yearning heart

And angel, I would die for you
For you, just for you, with my burning heart

Angel, don't feel liable
For me and my pain don't feel liable

'Cause angels must be free
High up from this world in eternity

Angel, I could clip your wings
To catch all your love, to calm your pain

But angel, this would be so wrong
You would bleed to death immediately

So angel, come to me
Heal my glaring pain voluntarily
I love you
