

When I Get You Alone

WWE

Let's go

All alone in my bed tonight
I find myself dreaming of all the things I might
Do to you, and do for me
Behind closed doors where nobody else will see

I know when I get you alone
There's gonna be trouble
Just hope that I don't lose control
I'll have you seeing double

Fantasies and dangerous dreams
All have my head spinning in a world of schemes
What to do when it's up to me
To take you places you have never seen

I know when I get you alone
There's gonna be trouble
Just hope that I don't lose control
I'll have you seeing double

I know when I get you
I know when I get you
I know when I get you
I know when I get you

All of my life they told me I'm wrong
I thought they were right, but then you came along
I finally believe, and now I can see
I was right all along, and it brought you to me

Okay, yeah
[Incomprehensible]
Seriously okay
No way around it now
Alright

I know when I get you alone
There's gonna be trouble
Just hope that I don't lose control
I'll have you seeing double

I know when I get you
I know when I get you
I know when I get you
I know when I get you

No way around it now

I know when I get you
I know when I get you
I know when I get you
