

Crash Of A Star

Wynardtage

Your world is dissolving
The ladders all denied
The moves heading nowhere
And the frontiers of your life
Crashing like a white star
Crashing like a bird
Diving back to sickness
Diving back in dirt

Rule hard in your chambers
Rule hard in your nights
Corroding's religion
And the terror from inside
Rule hard in you defense
Rule hard in your worst
The efforts of decisions
And the tortures of your curse
Rule hard in your chambers
Rule hard in your nights
Corroding's religion
And the terror from inside
And agony must be there
The lies that you adored
The flashbacks from a future
And the stumbling in your walk

You bare from the top out
And sufdfer quietly
The bargains from a sick turn
For you undoubtedly
Crashing like a white star
Crashing like a bird
Diving back to sickness
Diving back in dirt
