Demons Right Behind You

There is time to rest now there is time to reflect monsters are still crawling there is nothing to reject

Want to rejoice quickly want to regain fast pictures of your tyrants sleepless era lasts

Freed indoctrination freed from rumours drowned got now to the surface back up from the ground

Want to rejoice quickly want to regain fast pictures of your tyrants sleepless era lasts

When the demons right behind you all fragments from the past no bitterness remaining create your own forecast

By the nearly knockout and the heaviest beats but eroding is over at your demons defeat

When the demons right behind you all fragments from the past no bitterness remaining create your own forecast

So there is further rest now there is time to reflect whilst monsters are still crawling there is nothing to reject
