

Warm up my heart

Wynardtage

Warm up my heart
In a moment of reclusion
Take my bitterest parts
Share with me all this seclusions
Your opened eyes
Enjoy with me delightful sights
Over there horizon
Over there eternity

The endlessness
Warm up my heart

Warm up my heart
And be so tenderly
Why the best stories fall apart
Made just for eternity
Warm up my heart
Is it just illusion
Why the best arrangements shatter
Have we to yield to reason

Warm up my heart
Don't think about the past so much
Rejoice the days
As if it were our last

Let's break up the tears
Wasting all the years
Can't we start again
Before our feelings have to end

Warm up my heart
And be so tenderly
Why the best stories fall apart
Made just for eternity
Warm up my heart
Is it just illusion
Why the best arrangements shatter
Have we to yield to reason

Warm up my heart
Don't hide your tenderesses
Whenever felt to blame
Lived stranger times in cold
I don't want to twist the facts
My disclosure is the truth
Don't regret some of my acts
Even if uneasy blues
