

Ask Why

Wynonna Judd

A typical sunnydolyn morning
A cup of coffee and blue skies
Leaves swaying green
Listen to the Robins sing
Not a cloud in the sky
Concentrate with a humble mind
Self reflect and
ASK WHY
ASK WHY.

Judge not others but yourself
Give all and be all
Love and be loved
Let all fears step aside
Your kingdom is inside
Only when we ask why
ASK WHY
ASK WHY.

Knowing teachers who we are
Look at our thoughts
Know the person we are
Self taught teachers
From wisdom learned
With an open mind
Understand when we
ASK WHY
ASK WAY.

Why do we hide
When darkness fills our life?
We are the teachers of our mind
ASK WHY.

Truth is all there is
Truth is all we know
Why then do we hide
When darkness fills our life
And sicknes abides?
We're the teachers of our minds
Look at the sky and ask
ASK WHY.

Only when we ask
ASK WHY
only when we ask
ASK WHY