

From A Patio View

Wynonna Judd

FROM A PATIO VIEW

Realizing It's only a view
When I'm without you

FROM A PATIO VIEW

I watched the flood lights
That fill the night
It's lonely here
When I think about you
I sit back with teary eyes
In my easy chair
Wishing you were here tonight

FROM A PATIO VIEW

It's like a dream
That finally came true
It's a beautiful sight
But I don't have you
Just sounding jets
Passing by in the night
Beyond the high rise

FROM A PATIO VIEW

Sounds faster than sight
A roar between soft clouds
As I gaze into the night
How I wish you were here
To fulfill my life
Oh, how I wish you were here
To complete me to tonight

FROM A PATIO VIEW

It's happy and sad
As the memories flash
Brighter than lights
The jets remind me
How you just left my life
My memory lingers
While jets pass through the night
