

Revenge

X-Core

Friends are in the first place
Our future must stay aware
Everything is so far from where,
From where we were

Our music is revenge to all unfair
All our existence turns around the steps we made
Our darkest ideas and dreams will never be known
The one who wants it will see it

Get to the core, never hesitate
Never let yourself down, don't be afraid
Get to the core, never hesitate
Never let yourself down

Lines of chalk won't last forever
Lines of chalk won't last forever
You will hear us wherever you are
Wherever you are

We try to be better,
Be better, be better
We'll never leave your eyes
We'll never leave your eyes

We try to be better,
Be better, be better
We'll never leave your eyes
We'll never leave your eyes

You are fake,
You are fake and worthless,
Fake and worthless
You can't hate,
You cannot hate us,
Because you don't know us so will

You are fake and worthless, if you follow orders
You'll be ruled, decide how you would like it to be
Our darkest ideas and dreams will never be known
The one who wants it will see it

Lines of chalk won't last forever
Lines of chalk won't last forever
You will hear us wherever you are
Wherever you are

We try to be better,
Be better, be better
We'll never leave your eyes
We'll never leave your eyes

Revenge, revenge, revenge
You think you need
Need someone, nonsense, never
Burn bridges behind you
And if someone ask you

If you forgot us, be ready to Answer never
Get to the core, never hesitate
Never let yourself down, don't be afraid
Get to the core, never hesitate
Never let yourself down, don't be afraid

We try to be better,
Be better, be better
We'll never leave your eyes
We'll never leave your eyes
