

She's Magnetic

X-Core

Yeah

Would like to be where, they all
Can see me now, see me now
Give me wisdom, my heart aches and can't Say a word, say a word, say a word

Too depressive, she's magnetic
Too depressive, she drives me hectic
We are so far, I want you here
Can't touch you, so far, so far

Is it love, I cannot control, when I have lost her
It's got dark out, the bitch controls my mind
Remember our last kiss
Lipstick marks were back then heavenly

Too depressive, she's magnetic
Too depressive, she drives me hectic
We are so far, I want you here
Can't touch you, so far, so far

No more tears, make up's gone nothing remains
Nothing to see
No more tears, make up's gone
Make up's gone, make up's gone
This lonely feeling
When I see her running, running away
Running away from me, away from me

I have some poison in a bottle and for a while,
I wanna be her, I wanna be her, I wanna be her

Too depressive, she's magnetic
Too depressive, she drives me hectic
Too depressive, she's magnetic
Too depressive, she drives me hectic
We are so far, I want you here
Can't touch you, so far, so far
We are so far, I want you here, can't touch you
