

White Poem I

X Japan

Tell me why
Tell me why
Tell me why the wind is so cold
Take my heart inside your love

Tell me why
Tell me why
Tell me why I feel so blue
Tell me why
Tell me why I love you

My love for you would break my heart
No No No
No way to change my heart
I still wanna be in the endless blue verse

I feel so blue in this white poem
Love will find the way
This is the line you used to love
Do you still believe that?
While I'm away, read this line again
