

Personal Heaven

X-Perience

For every bird that finds the sky,
for every hope that finds a home,
every creature in the sea -
it's all in me.

All the wishing in the world that comes to something good, every thought that should be free -
it's all in me.

The sun and the rain
that falls from above
My personal heaven
A word on the wind
with a whisper of love
My personal home

All in all, all in one
Heaven

For every wish upon a star, for every hand upon a heart,
for every eye that's lost a tear -
it's all in me

A flower taken from a dream, given back to mother earth to nourish everything you fear -
it's all in me

that falls from above
My personal heaven
A word on the wind
with a whisper of love
My personal home

The seed that seals the future is the love that gives love life Oh, the answer to this story is all in me

that falls from above
My personal heaven
A word on the wind
My personal home
Oh oh, my personal heaven
Oh oh, my personal home

All in all, all in one
Heaven
