Only for the Stars in Your Eyes

On a train to Neverland We are riding hand in hand We are chasing unicorns And elves Chinese dragons guide our way To the dawning of the day We will give a promise to Ourselves

Only for tonight Only for the stars in your eyes

We are crazy, but who cares...! To our heaven there are stairs If we want it to be like That And reality is just An illusion that we must Soon return to, yes, but not Yet

Only for tonight Only for the stars in your eyes

Hey, Give me what I need Hey, you are what I want

Only for tonight For your eyes only

Only for tonight Only for the stars in your eyes
