She's Nirvana

Xandria

Do you dare to taste her soul? Do you like to trick control? Did you think this world was real? Realize this was the deal

She's ether fire - burns away all the dire You will feel her touch for a while

She's eternity behind her disguise You have almost seen a world in her eyes But you've known that it would never be born She's flown away like a leaf in a storm

Do you see her through the waves? Do you think it's her who saves? With a blink of radiant eye Would you really dare to try?

She's like a fawn - just appears and then gone What remains will be just this one song

She's eternity behind her disguise...

She's bliss - she's ether - she's dark - she's Nirvana

She's eternity behind her disguise...
