

Ship Of Doom

Xandria

Oh, when the sun is down and the moon is up
Our story will be told
Oh, when they call our names and we raise our cups
We are bound to the Ship of doom

We will call you all to gather!
We will bring your fantasies!
We are born from smoke and fire!
We will sail the seven seas!

One, two, three, four - can you hear the cannons roar
Five, six, seven, eight - it has been too long a wait
Nine, ten, eleven, twelve - now we need to raise some hell
So now sing with us!

Oh, we have come to your town with our following
to bring you light but we're gone very soon
We are the kings of a world that has never been
Oh, we are bound to the Ship of doom

We are born from smoke and fire! (The Ship of doom!)
We will sail the seven seas!

One, two, three, four - see the hungry want some more
Five, six, seven, eight - take it now or it's too late
Nine, ten, eleven, twelve - soon it's time to leave this place
We will not forget!

Oh, we have come to your town with our following
to bring you light but we're gone very soon
We are the kings of a world that has never been
Oh, we are bound to the Ship of doom

Oh when the sun is down and the moon is up
Our story will be told

See the lightning!
Feel the thunder!
Come and fight!

Take us further!
Bring us closer!
To the glory!

Take us further!
Drowning deeper!
In the story!

Once we're home from the storm and the seas
there is nothing we will regret

We will call you
all to gather!
We will bring your fantasies!
We are born from
smoke and fire!
We will sail the seven seas!

We will call you
all to gather!
We will bring your fantasies!
We are born from
smoke and fire!
We will sail the seven seas!

Oh, we have come to your town with our following
(We will call you all to gather! We will bring your fantasies!)
to bring you light but we're gone very soon
(We are born from smoke and fire! We will sail the seven seas!)
We are the kings of a world that has never been
(We will call you all to gather! We will bring your fantasies!)
Oh, we are bound to the Ship of doom
(We are born from smoke and fire! We will sail the seven seas!)

When the sun is down and the moon is up
Our story will be told
Oh, when they call our names and we raise our cups
We are bound to the Ship of doom

All to the Ship of Doom!
All to the Ship of Doom!
