So now come sit down Will you talk with me now Let me see through your eyes Where there is so much light We are biding our time For these myths to unwind For these changes we will confront

So please beware With every place that you had Look to your soul For the things that you know For the trees that we see Can not forever breathe With the changes they will confront

R: You know some people they just won't understand No I just won't understand These things Thank you for your message but I don't understand No I just won't understand These things

For this sacred land It has seen many hands It has wealth and gold Yet it is fragile and old And all the greedy souls Just don't care to know Of the changes it will confront

So speak out loud Of the things you are proud And if you love this coast Then keep it clean as it hopes 'Cause the way that it shines May just dwindle with time With the changes it will confront

R:

So hold nice and close I want to get to your soul So that when it is cold You won't feel so alone 'Cause the roads that you take May just crack and break With the changes you will confront

With each gift that you share You may heal and repair With each choice you make You may help someone's day Well I know you are strong May your journey be long And now I wish you the best of luck Well I know you are strong May your journey be long And now I wish you the best of luck
