Lately I saved myself
Lately I saved myself
Lately I saved myself
See I, I was wrong but I saved myself

And you held out your hand and it was all that I had
And these places I've been that you couldn't share with me
But your tears had their place on those cold lonely days
And I was wrong but I need you now

Lately I saved myself
Lately I saved myself
Lately I saved myself
'Cause I, I was wrong but I saved myself

You held out your hand when it was all that I had
Through those rapid winds of change you were solid at the base
But your tears had their place on those cold lonely days
And I was wrong but I need you now

So so sorry, I'm so sorry
So so sorry, I'm so sorry
So so sorry, I'm so sorry
So so sorry 'cause I was wrong
