

Who Can I Run To

Xscape

As I stand here contemplating
On the right thing to decide
Will I take the wrong direction
All my life, where will I go? What lies ahead of me?

I have strong determination
And I'm not afraid of change
I have yet to find that someone
Who would care to satisfy me, to stay right by me

Who can I run to, to share this empty space?
Who can I run to, when I need love?
Who can I run to, to fill this empty space with laughter?
Who can I run to, when I need love? Sweet love

And my mind is so confusing
Who would be that special one?
Everyday I'm trying to find you all around
I've got to know, is there a place for me?

I know love has many names
And a message very clear
All it takes is time and patience
To bring you near, but who can be? Tell me

Who can I run to, to share this empty space?
Who can I run to, when I need love?
Who can I run to, to fill this empty space with laughter?
Who can I run to, when I need love?

Who can, who can I run to when I need love?
Who can, who can I run to when I need love?
Who can, who can I run to when I need love?
