You want some lovely, I got some lovely I've got some lovely in my head, in my head Where the lions, wear the right eye, Where the jems [unverified] roar, there be lovely

You want some lovely, I got some lovely In my bed, in my bed Where the ocean wears the shore down Where's the on switch? There be lovely laying waiting naked for you

We can play every day We can play at being lovers We can play every day We can play on my brown guitar

We can play every day We can play at being lovers We can play every day We can play on my brown guitar

You want some lovely, I got some lovely In my yard, in my yard There be inchworm, there be footlong There be yardstick stir, some lovely Laying waiting naked for you

You want some lovely, I got some lovely In my field, in my field There be green grass, there be big sky There be blue birds come and nest there

We can play every day We can play at being lovers We can play every day We can play on my brown guitar

We can play every day We can play at being lovers We can play every day We can play on my brown guitar

You want some lovely, I got some lovely In my heart, in my heart for you
