

Asking

XYZ

I would give anything just to see you now
I had so much to tell wish i did somehow
I cried and cried the day you closed your eyes Memories forever lost from all the things that we didn't say now

Chorus :

All I'm asking is for you to understand
What i believed was always wrong
I knew the father but I wish I knew the man
Oh I've waited way too long to say these words to you
Words that we never spoke but we felt inside
Silence that was never broke though I should have tried
And now I'm reaching out my hand to you to the other side now

Chorus:

All I'm asking is for you to understand
What i believed was always wrong
I knew the father but I wish I knew the man
Ooh I've waited way too long to say these words to you

Bridge:

If you could see me today
you'd be so proud of me
I know the right words to say
I'll follow you forever

Chorus2:

All I'm asking is for you to understand
What I believed was always wrong
So Please forgive me and I'll be a better man
Ooh I've waited way too long to say these words to you
