

Deny

XYZ

Every time I see you I look in your eyes
Takes my breath away
Every time that I touch you
My heart opens wide
I breathe in your soul every day

I can't deny this feeling inside me
I just can't deny
The light in my life is you

Every one sees a rainbow and searches for gold
And find nothing in despair
Everytime I see a rainbow
It's your colors I hold
Like a painting that's always been there.

I can't deny this feeling inside me
I just can't deny
The light in my life is you

If someone brings you what they say is a bed of roses
I will make sure that they pull the thorns away
And I believe you can't fight what fate has chosen
Cause when the rain is pouring down
You still light up the day
