

Never Too Late

XYZ

how can i see without a light when my dreams are dead and gone when my love is over and done how can i fight the pain inside if much more is yet to come as eternity goes on without love babe. woman find a needy way to break it up and say goodbye
tonight, no more once upon a time forget you cried
never too late...
i used to read into your eyes that over clouds of time it would be just you and i so don't let it go. don't let it die and before you seal your mind just remember. remember you're mine and only mine.
and say goodbye
tonight, no more once upon a time
never too late...
tonight let's give our love another try.
one more try!
