

Man Of Another Woman

Yael Naim

i let you inside
right inside my room
and i had these feelings
i never knew
will the seasons
will they all come true
beautiful tangle
that i can't undo

while i'm waiting
quietly for you
another woman
carries life from you

i took a man from another woman
i took a man from another woman
lie, lie, cry, sigh

will we always
feed the olive tree
god this feeling
is too good to be real
but though i'm trying to tell you that we're through my heart always brings me back to you

i took a man from another woman
lie, sigh
sigh, lie, cry, lie
