

Shelcha

Yael Naim

Oh my heart is yours
My body for you
And my entire soul

My eyes see you
My lips long for yours
So why am I not with you

So give me another minute to run away
Give me another minute
Just give me another minute to flourish

So give me another minute to run away
Give me another minute
Just give me another minute to forget
That I'm not with you

Oh my heart it hungers
My body it hurts
And my entire soul is shaking

It's me you think about
It's me you get closer to
So why don't you love

So give me another minute to run away...
Until you'll bring light to me...

Too many screams in my throat
Too many faces
Too many plans
that I wanted to change
So many words
If I can only tell you
There's no other love
But the one I live with you

Still don't know how
We let all this happen
Will this war last forever and ever?
They've burned my hands
Cut my hair and steal my soul
But do you really want to know?

Rest in peace with my sorrows
Are we alone or together
Or are you my greatest war?

If I'm not with you...If I can't be with you
