

The Promise

Yanni

The way the moon
Bends down to light
The sea
And catches hold
Of mountains strong
They stand beside me
And all that I am
They have written in
My soul
I've made a promise
To never lose sight
Of the dream
That leads me home
And this much I know

Time like a river
Sends me away
But here on these shores
My heart remains
From these shores I came

A tender wind
That reaches through
The hills
And sends me on
Through joy and pain
It breathes within me
And all that I am
It has written in
My soul
I've made a promise
To never lose sight
Of the dream
That leads me home
And this much I know
And this much I know
