

The First Rule of Fight Club

Yashin

I dare you say it to my face
You always keep pushing
But in silence you take what's ours
And make it yours
Keep pushing away, away

But this I know, this is my home
And times are changing
This is my home
In it we'll grow
You'll never

Break my will, but you always keep breaking
The rules, We'll break your legs

Keep pushing away, away

But this I know, this is my home
And times are changing
This is my home
In it we'll grow
You'll never

Scream my name
Scream my name
Scream my name
Scream my name

But this I know, this is my home
And times are changing
This is my home, in it we'll grow

(Scream my name)

But this I know, this is my home
And times are changing

(Scream my name)

This is my home, in it we'll grow
You'll never

Scream my name
