

Still Waters

Years Since The Storm

You built your whole life out of lies.
If it it continues, I will rip out your tongue.
And feed it right back to you. you built your whole life out of lies.
And I see you for who you really are. You're ugly!
And now the whole world can see you...ff With Your Head.
For all the lies you ever spit.
You're no longer the man you used to be.
You've yet to learn that every action has a consequence.
Your about to feel to have the whole world against you!
[your lies have cost you your tongue]
So bring your excuses to somewhere else.
You're not a man at all!
Forget everything you think you know. You're not a man at all!
You're not a man at all! You're not a man at all!
Get off my back I don't need you to go.
You're excuses have no substance here I hope you choke!
I can see all of your faces and there equally hideous.
Fake smiles hide real lies.
And real lies hide real insecurities.
How 'bout you take some time to get to know me. Because still waters run deeper than you'd think.
Take some time to get to know me.
Because still waters run deeper than you'd think.
[your lies have cost you your tongue]
So bring your excuses to somewhere else.
You're not a man at all!
Forget everything you think you know.
You're not a man at all! You're not a man at all!
Forget everything you think you know.
Still waters run deeper than you'd think.
Forget everything you think you know.
Still waters run deeper than you'd think.
Forget everything you think you know.
Still waters run deeper than you'd think.
