Before I say goodbye I'd like to say good day And I hope you say "good buy" when they ask was it worth for you to pay For my music, for pressin' play For all the stress that went into my songs My love and hate The most honest I could be with you to date Is to say thank thank you Shady For lettin' me be me with no Thank you for the chance to enhance this old car This old jar of moonshine is but two lines on a blank sheet but so far These two lines point directed to my home on the mothership sonar Valet, I go park The dirty south needs a soap bar In the mouth of these MCs but But who am I to judge on what they love? I guess they enjoy being broke and co-stars And I'm soakin' so hard From the sweat that I could take my clothes off I done fucked and raped the whole yard Should sit back and shake the gold off But I'm already gone I got a bitch and like Taylor songs In an envelope like letters Lettuce, green, money, long Wolfpacks in a calzone I'll keep makin' these albums Yeah you might have heard a dial tone But I was on the other line when I hung up the phone I'll send a postcard when I leave I think about you when I dream And when I'm up under the high beams I reflect that shining So you can feel the heat of light A life of violence 'til I die in Yeah I've done come a long way From Dixie Land, take my hand

I'm talkin' lowriders, 77 Devilles
L-Dogs, nothin' but them 'Lacs
Sittin' on boxes in the front yard of the trailer park
Hell, one time for the single [?] and the little cribs
Two times if you know what it's like to fuckin' live
Three times in a row you've been late on the rent
Four times before you did the same old shit

Baby done grown up, workin' that bid like a grown up
Fuckin' toned up, let the Glock talk, I'ma gon' hush
Just like daddy taught me, wait I didn't have one
Fuck it, I'm happy for him, cause he got a bad one
I popped outta that Easy Bake, land of the 'Bama, clean and safe
Dropped outta high school, reason, hey, I'm already high from a seedless egg
And they wonder why I speak this way
And ye ain't ever seen this place
Well here's your American pie
It's a Dixie piece of cake
