

Domingo

Yello

We are here in this holy cave today
To celebrate the reincarnation of Domingo de Santa Clara
The man who convinced us that there is no Lord
For His name is Buddha, Allah, Shiva, Jahve outside our bodies

We are God 'cause only we can create the idea
Of His existence in our holy brains

Je deteste l'idee de dieu et de son fils
C'est une des idees les plus diaboliques
Dans l'histoire entiere de l'homme
Let us pray to ourselves and our spirits

Domingo you show me just nothing like no one before
Domingo you show me just nothing like no one before
Domingo you show me just nothing like no one before
Domingo you show me just nothing like no one before

Domingo of Santa Clara you made us believe
That you are no phantom when without
The slightest spot of a thousand nations
You sprayed your blood of Domingo

We all know Domingo of Santa Clara
Will be born today, tomorrow and the day after
Billions of times 'til the end of the Universe
Here with a smile on his face still rest of our species watches
The catastrophe

Domingo you show me just nothing like no one before
Domingo you show me just nothing like no one before
Domingo you show me just nothing like no one before
